D.O.No.2-93/2022 (CPP-II)

2nd November, 2022

Respected Madam / Sir,

As you are aware, on the occasion of the 76th Independence Day on 15th August 2022, the Hon'ble Prime Minister, in his address to the nation inter-alia, mentioned about five resolves (Panch Pran) and their relevance for the coming 25 years as the nation is entering the Amrit Kaal. The speech of the Hon'ble Prime Minister may be accessed at following link:

<https://pib.gov.in/PressReleasePage.aspx?PRID=1869516>.

The Panch Pran outlined by the Hon'ble Prime Minister resolve to make India a developed country by the time it celebrates its 100th Independence Day in 25 years. The Panch Pran are as follows:

1. Resolve to move the country ahead as a developed India
2. Erase all traces of servitude
3. Be proud of India's heritage and legacy
4. Strength of unity and solidarity
5. Duties of citizens towards the nation

The Hon'ble Prime Minister, through the Lifestyle for the Environment (LiFE) mission, urges the nation to live a lifestyle that is in tune with our planet and does not harm it. The need for the hour is to solve the challenges faced by our planet using human-centric, collective efforts and robust action that further sustainable development.

Higher educational institutions (HEIs) are requested to work out the modalities for imbibing the spirit of the 'Panch Pran' and 'LiFE' Movement in the higher education system. The activities undertaken in this regard may be shared on UGC's University Activity Monitoring Portal (UAMP).

Need of the hour is to solve the challenges faced by our planet using human-centric, collective efforts and robust actions that further sustainable development.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Rajnish Jain)
