Call for Research Articles

About the Journal: Mahatma Gandhi Central University Journal of Social Sciences (MGCUISS), a biannual, double-blind peer-reviewed Journal of Mahatma Gandhi Central University (MGCU) invites original scholarly research articles in the field of social sciences and humanities for its inaugural issue.

The Journal seeks to publish articles written in English that study with scientific rigour and academic zeal any aspect pertaining to human society. Theoretical, explorative or empirical works on either traditional or contemporary issues are welcome. Book reviews of interest to the journal's readership will be accepted.

The Journal welcomes articles pertaining to, but is not limited to, the following disciplines viz Applied Social Sciences, Commerce, Economics, Education, Gender Studies, Geography, History, Literary Studies, Management Studies, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Social Work, and Sociology.

About the University: The Central Universities (Amendment) Act 2014 [No. 35 of 2014] which received the Presidential assent on 17th December 2014 provided for the establishment of Mahatma Gandhi Central University, having its territorial jurisdiction extending to the territory in the North of the River Ganges in the State of Bihar. The University is fully funded and regulated by the University Grants Commission (UGC). The academic building and administrative office of the University is presently located at Motihari, near the scenic Motijheel (Lake of Pearls) in the Purvi Champaran district of Bihar.

The First Academic Session of the University started from 17th October 2016. Now only three years old, the 20 academic Departments of the University offer 61 programmes of study. Mixing the wisdom of the past with the requirements of the present, MGCU provides an academic environment that is both discursive and digital. With its broad vision and dexterous leadership, MGCU aims to be a university of the future.
